Appraisal

Oh, great Lord—my great, great Lord!
It's Bob, here!

I just can't thank you enough.

You gotta know that your name got me into so many doors.

Jesus, thank you so much!

With your words, I helped millions feel good and in return, got millions and it felt good.

Thanks to you,

demons obeyed my every command.

Sickness couldn't survive my hands.

What a rush, all that power, I was the man!

Thank you so much!

By the way, this place is decked out.

Every atom lavishly laden in golden hues.

The sheer cost of it all jus' screams out at you.

I see now that we do, in fact, have the same taste.

Really, my man, thanks so much!

Can't wait to see what this "kingdom" thing's all about.

Y'know, I used to think that it was a bit of a fairytale
but, uh, happy to see I was wrong.

So... where do I go now, huh?

I can see a large celebration thingy over there...

... Bob...

you abuser of My name,

you prophet of false hope,

you arrogant hedonist,

you penniless and desolate soul,

you wicked and useless servant,

get away from me

now.

50 by A Quiet Escapist

I hope that when I'm fifty life still matters:
sportin' smiles, set on sky.
This rough path before me has only been walked on by faceless brothers and a faceless model.

I'm seeking the highest significance and it's all I have to dream of it.
I know when it's my time I'll get to go through.
It all comes down to who knows who.

"Lord, can I come in?"
How is the road weaved?
By the fabric of honor and the love I breathe.
It's spun from the threads of a life well-spent
and of care well-meant.
"Lord, can I come in?"

Your first sip of dirt on fire burned your gut and stung your eyes.
But let it simmer and you'll soon find an aftertaste of glorious pride.
Count the cost of what's inside.
Then kill the glimmer in your mind.
Love is stranger than currency:
it won't seem much 'til you're with Me.
